Olson Wins Fuel Oil In Antioch News Auction

Richard L. Olson, P. O. Box 255, Antioch, was high bidder in the Antioch News auction last week with a bid of $52.97 for 400 gallons of fuel oil.

Mr. Olson arrived at the winning figure, he says, by deducting $10 from the announced retail price, and then, as an afterthought, adding a nickel for good measure to defeat any bidder who might have the same idea. It worked, as the next bidder was just 5¢ below the bid of Mr. Olson.

Mr. Olson is a milk processor at Willowdale Dairy. He has been married two years. His wife is Home Economics teacher at the Antioch High School. Both Mr. and Mrs. Olson are originally from Baldwin, Wis.

GOP Dinner On Oct. 14

Preparations for the Lake County Republican Federation dinner October 14 at the Chevy Chase Country Club are nearly complete, reported James Wetzel of Deerfield—banquet arrangements chairman.

"There seems to be a last minute surge of people who want to hear Senator Tower tell of his amazing victory over 70 opponents last year in Texas," commented Mr. Wetzel, "but we are ready for them."

Senator Tower of Texas will be the principal speaker at the dinner which serves as a testimonial for Illinois Senator Everett Dirksen and Marguerite Stitt Church, the retiring Congresswoman from this district. Robert McClory, candidate for Congress, and the other Republican state and county candidates will also be appropriately recognized at the dinner. The dinner is being sponsored by the Lake County Republican Federation and all the proceeds from the dinner will support billboard, radio and newspaper advertising during the November campaign.

the workshop will gather, write, edit and air news of interest pertaining to Lake County High Schools including sports, features, school notes, etc. Following the six workshop sessions the program will continue with volunteers participating on a volunteer basis.

It will take some time for the new Public Works Department to organize and plan any course of action. A sum of $25,000 has been placed in the proposed budget to be presented to the County Board at a special meeting on October 19, which will provide working funds for the new department.

THE FREE EVANGELICAL CHURCH on Tiffany Road which will be dedicated Sunday.

Free Church Dedication on Sunday; Speakers are Named

The dedication of the Church Parsonage of the Antioch Evangelical Free Church will be held this Sunday, October 14, at 3 p.m., according to the pastor, Carroll D. Lindman.

The Rev. Gordon S. Kling, Superintendent of the Great Lakes District of the Evangelical Free Church, will deliver the dedicatory address. Other ministers participating will be the Rev. Alex Koval of Chicago, the Rev. Willard Vetter of Libertyville, and the Rev. Robert Hickman of Wauconda. Mrs. Stanley Anderson, Jr., will sing.

The Antioch Evangelical Free Church is located on Tiffany Road and Highway Drive, two blocks north of Hwy. 173. The redwood-frame structure houses a church auditorium seating 100, a 4-room apartment for the pastor and family, and a full basement for Sunday School classrooms, a nursery, and a church office. In the future, a church sanctuary and Christian Education building will be constructed at which time the present building will be converted into a three-bedroom parsonage.

Following the dedication service, the church and parsonage will be open for inspection with refreshments served in the basement. Interested visitors are cordially invited to attend.

Rev. Paul B. Peters, F. R. G. S., President of the Eastern European Mission, an interdenominational missionary organization with international headquarters in Pasadena, Calif., will speak on the subject, "East and West of the Wall of Shame" at the morning worship service of the church at 11 a.m.

Having been associated with missionary work in Europe for 41 years, during which time he has ministered in nearly all of its countries, Mr. Peters is well posted concerning conditions there. He spent the autumn of 1961 in Europe. The countries visited were Greece, Yugoslavia, Switzerland, Germany, Poland, Russia, Holland, Belgium and England. Conferences were held with the missionaries of the Eastern European Mission and national Christian leaders. Considerable time was devoted to a study of the situation in East and West Berlin, Poland and Russia and much hard-to-obtain information was secured in the Soviet Union. Hear of his experiences in crossing the Berlin barrier alone and going all the way to Moscow.

Mr. Peters reports that of all the Soviet satellites, Poland enjoys the greatest religious freedom. Now for the first time the door to that country is wide open, for evangelism, not only among adults but also youth. The Christian believers have paid dearly for this freedom. Mr. Peters, who has lived in Poland and so has access to some of the best sources of information, tells a thrilling story of their sufferings and victories.

The Mission ministers to the physical and spiritual needs of refugees in West Berlin and West Germany; produces Sunday School and other Christian literature in Greece; and engages in general missionary work in a number of European countries.

400 Attend H. S. "Back To School"

Parents' night at Antioch High School, held last Wednesday, had its biggest attendance to date, according to Albert Dittman, principal of the school.

About 400 mothers and dads went through the 8-period class day of their children and about 300 returned to the new school cafeteria for refreshments after classes.

The evening was opened with the introduction of P. T. A. officers in the high school auditorium. The operation of the class schedules was then explained to the moms and dads, and they attended the various classes of the respective children and met their teachers.

The excellent attendance, Mr. Dittman said, might be in part attributable to curiosity about the new school addition.

The New Public Works Dept.

The approval of the Public Works Department for Lake County by the Board of Supervisors, coming hard on the heels of the announcement of plans for a shopping plaza and new construction by the Antioch Savings & Loan Association in Antioch, brings a spirit of growth and improvement to the area that has not been felt in years.

Antioch and the surrounding area, like many more portions of Lake County, has ambled along leaning on its dwindling reputation as a resort town, resisting change and improvements, and closing its eyes to unhealthy and at times downright stinking situations created by inadequate septic systems and lack of regulation of many situations created by the crowds that poured into the area to use the lakes and streams.

A lack of sanitary regulation or policing of any kind in areas that were formerly sparsely settled or housed only summer residents has proved a growing problem as the rural areas around the town have become almost as thickly populated as the village itself.

We hope the new Public Works Department will come up with some really adequate long-range plans that will take into account the needs of all areas of the county. We hope adequate sanitary regulations and adequate sewer systems will be established throughout the county. We hope a sensible, workable flood control program can be inaugurated. And, as we're sure all citizens hope, we hope it can be done without a waste of the taxpayer's money—without favoritism, featherbedding or expensive and poorly-engineered mistakes.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Television weather commentators in the Chicago area have been urging those in search of autumnal beauty to travel to Door County, Wisconsin, or Brown County, Indiana, for brilliant fall foliage and color.

Too bad somebody didn't inform the weathermen about the beauty at our own backdoors right here in Lake County.

A drive through the Chain O' Lakes State Park will disclose October in all its hazy brilliance with sparkling lakes and bays glistening in a foreground backed by the scarlets, golds, and yellows of the trees and underbrush.

A drive through the grounds of St. Mary's Seminary in Mundelein is a rewarding trip for those who seek a calm, unhurried unfolding of nature's fall wardrobe.

In fact a drive over the network of county highways will get the fall foliage fan into quiet sectors of the county where he can drink in the glory of October without battling against frenzied drivers in a rush through beauty to the redder leaves just over the next hill.

Past legislative action or inaction on bills affecting the tavern industry is coming back to haunt three of the four state legislators in their bid for reelection in the Nov. 6 election.

State Representative W. J. Murphy, of Antioch, is the only member of the Lake County team of state legislators to receive the endorsement of the Central Committee of Tavern Owners Associations of Lake County.

The committee, composed of officers and representatives of the tavern owners associations in Waukegan, North Chicago, Fox Lake, and the county, turned thumbs down on Murphy's colleagues in the Illinois General Assembly and gave their endorsement to a trio of Democrats and newcomer John Connolly, GOP candidate for State Representative.

Getting the cold shoulder from the tavernkeepers were former State Senator Robert McClory, who is seeking the new 12th District Congressional seat; Robert Coulson, former state representative who is running for the vacant senate post, and Jack Baird, who is seeking re-election as a Democratic state representative.

This probably presages no trend since the vote was based on the action of the legislators on bills affecting the tavern and liquor industries.

The association went down the line for Republican candidates for county office.

Sheriff Norris Froelich, who was hospitalized for a brief spell following a cerebral hemorrhage, is home again and has been able to pay short visits to his office.

Full recovery of the popular law man will enable Chief Deputy Charles Larson to devote more time to his campaigning for sheriff on the Republican ticket.

Despite a seemingly endless array of dances, luncheons, parties and meetings the political campaign seems to be having trouble getting underway.

Perhaps the Kickoff Dinner of the Lake County Republican Federation at Chevy Chase Country Club, Sunday, will stir up some interest in the Nov. 6 balloting.

At least Max Wildman and his committee in charge of the dinner have lined up some top talent in U. S. Senator John Tower, of Texas,

Rev. Miller Named To Conference Board

The Rev. Ralph L. Miller of Rockford has been named executive secretary of the Methodist Rock River Conference Board of Missions.

He succeeds Dr. R. Merrill Powers, now an executive of a Methodist general board.

Bishop Charles W. Brashares announced the appointment recently.

The Rev. Mr. Miller will be in charge of extension and expansion activities of conference churches, which now number 400. The conference expects to build 40 additional churches in the next four years.

Mr. Miller will work with the development of priority lists and the securing of building sites. He will be in charge of promotion of conference mission work, work with the district superintendents, assist local churches to strengthen their work.

and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, of Illinois.

While the GOP is bringing in the two solons to stir up interest for Republican candidates, the Democrats have also unlimbered some heavy artillery in the person of U.S. Postmaster General Edward Day and Gov. Otto Kerner who appeared here last weekend for Congressional Candidate John Kimball.

Incidentally, despite a GOP Central Committee decision to avoid sharing platforms with the Democrats, McClory and Kimball engaged in a spirited debate and question and answer session at Deerfield last week.

A few exchanges such as that donnybrook could put some life in the campaign and bring out a few voters.

Your Governor Reports

by OTTO KERNER

(first of two articles)
Representatives from the four Midwest states and various cities will assemble in Chicago tomorrow to map a concerted drive to restore Illinois and her sister states to their rightful place in the economy of our nation's defense spending.

Chief executives of Indiana and Illinois and representatives from Wisconsin will be on hand for the important research and development conference which we hope will mark the beginning of a major Midwest breakthrough in this vital area.

Mayors of various cities also will be in attendance, as will representatives of such important agencies as the Illinois Board of Economic Development, the Chicago Area Research and Development Council, the Chicago Association of Commerce, and the Mayor's Committee for Economic and Cultural Development of Chicago.

The mission of the conference is the return to Illinois and the Midwest of billions of dollars of defense contracts that have trickled away during the past decade. The sobering facts show that the Midwest received more than 33 per cent of all defense contracts at the end of World War II while now the area gets slightly more than 10 per cent.

The loss of these billions of dollars came during a period when our industry mainly concentrated on producing consumer-oriented products. This was good, but not good enough. In the meanwhile other areas also were concentrating on research and development linked to the nation's growing space and science programs.

Research and development is the key to major growth in manufacturing and manufacturing employment. A Pentagon report gives evidence that prime contracts closely follow the concentration of research.

The Pentagon report also notes that the cut in defense spending in the Midwest accounts for much of the area's high rate of industrial unemployment, so you can see how important is our mission of research and development.

This mission needs the efforts of industry, labor, education, government and all persons who are concerned with a greater prosperity for themselves and their neigh-

Durkin Heads Easter Seal Fund Drive

An Easter Seal Society Campaign Goal of $20,115 was set by the Executive Board of the Lake County Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults at a meeting of the group at the Easter Seal Treatment Center, 709 North Ave., Waukegan, last week.

Heading the fund drive in Lake County will be Lou Durkin, Waukegan public relations consultant and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Easter Seal Society.

The Easter Seal Campaign will provide the bulk of the $37,635 budgeted by the Executive Board for the operation of the Easter Seal Treatment Center which provides physical therapy for cerebral palsy, birth defects, and other crippling disease victims.

The budget also provides for the additional occupational therapist and a speech therapist to the Treatment Center staff, according to Hymen Perett, Waukegan newspaper distributor and president of the Lake County chapter.

The balance of the budget will be met through income from patient fees, which are levied in accordance with ability to pay and special grants and gifts from individuals and organizations, Perett said.

An occupational therapist has been hired and will join the Treatment Center staff on Nov. 1, according to Mrs. Pearl Alexander, chief therapist in charge of the Center.

The Easter Seal Drive will be conducted the last week of March and the first week of April, Durkin reported, and will consist of a mail solicitation in most of the county with a door-to-door effort being made in Waukegan and North Chicago.

Assistance in the various phases of the drive will be sought from Women's organizations in each part of the county, the campaign chairman said.

Attorney General William G. Clark has said that he is "inclined to the view" that a sheriff who pursuant to county regulations takes money from a prisoner and places it in a safe until it can be returned to the prisoner on his release from jail cannot be garnished. However, Clark advised State Attorney Robert E. Richardson of LaSalle county, the matter has not been passed upon by the courts of Illinois and therefore is not entirely free from doubt.

Men's Club

The Lindenhurst Men's Club is conducting a membership drive for 1963. This is a special call for all men of the village. It offers a great opportunity for them to function as a responsible adult and to enjoy being part of community affairs.

A member of the club will call on each man personally to encourage their participation in the interests of the Men's Club, and to invite them to attend the next meeting, Nov. 1, at 8 p.m. There will be refreshments.

If interested, call Lyle Mercer, president, to arrange for a spokesman to call. Ellet 6-8344.

"Q-T's"

The "Q-T's" met at Barbara Hendrickson's home last Wednesday evening. It was a come-as-you-are party. Bathrobes, pajamas, hair in pin curls, etc. was the sight she beheld when she welcomed some of her guests.

Games were played with the winners receiving prizes. "Gossip" also was played. That's the game where you whisper something to your neighbor and it is repeated all around the room. The final telling is usually far

Mary Tracy is the club's treasurer.

Coffee and cake were served.

Millburn Pastor Heads Lake County Extension Council

Rev. L. H. Messersmith, Millburn, was unanimously reelected head of the Lake County Agricultural Extension Council at its recent meeting. Rev. Messersmith is pastor of the Millburn Congregational Church and was recently honored for having completed 20 years of service at Millburn. He has been keenly interested in the activities of the Agricultural Extension Service in Lake County and has assisted Farm Adviser Ray T. Nicholas in carrying out numerous projects.

Benjamin L. Sargent, large poultry farm operator of Grayslake, was elected vice-president of the council.

Joseph Tekampe, dairy and poultry farmer of Fremont township, was elected Council treasurer and Henry Schaeppi, farmer near Buffalo Grove, was elected secretary.

The purpose of the Agricultural Extension Council, which consists of nine members in Lake County, is to give support and direction to the Extension program in the county. The council members assist the farm adviser in formulating programs to achieve the objectives of better farming, better living, and the growth and development of people so they can analyze and strive to solve their problems.

4-H Members

The 1962 Agricultural 4-H Club enrollment hit a new all-time high, according to Farm Adviser Ray T. Nicholas. The total number enrolled in the fifteen agricultural 4-H clubs was 487. This represented a gain of 57 over the 1961 enrollment. The enrollment was fairly equally divided between boys and girls, there being 234 girls and 253 boys enrolled.

Of the 487 members, 205 were from farm homes, 181 from rural nonfarm homes, and 101 from urban homes. While the percentage of farm youth enrolled in the Agricultural 4-H Clubs has shown a downward trend, the actual number of farm youth enrolled has been increasing.

There were actually more farm youth as well as more non-farm youth enrolled this year than in any previous year.

The Grayslake Agricultural Club, led by Mrs. Cecil Anderson and Mr. Walter Cording, with 134 members, was the largest in Lake County. It is also one of the largest in Illinois.

Second place in enrollment was the Millburn Hornets Club led by Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeYoung. There are 82 members in this club.

Flood Control Committee Asks For Damage Data

State Rep. Wm. J. Murphy, of Petite Lake, recently called a meeting of citizens interested in flood control. He also invited Mr. Louis D'Albe, Chief of the Flood Control Section, U. S. Army Engineers to attend. Mr. D'Albe stated at this meeting that Congress will act only if it is shown that damages from flooding are sufficiently high to warrant the investment in flood control by the U. S. Government in the Fox River Basin. Mr. D'Albe reported that it is up to each community to gather data on flood damages and requested reports of every known case of damage and loss. This information, he said, had been sought for the past two years with indifferent response from the people. There are three corrective courses to prevent flooding, D'Albe said: 1—A system of levees and seawalls. 2—Widening and deepening channel and river capacity. 3—A system of dams and reservoirs upstream in Wisconsin to impound flood waters for later release. D'Albe said he considered levees or seawalls too costly. He preferred widening and deepening the channels and rivers and the use of dams and reservoirs.

Dressel At Conference

William Dressel, vice president of the senior class at Cornell College and son of the Clarence Dressels of 2819 Cornelia, Waukegan, was one of 61 Cornellians participating in the recent Student-Faculty Planning Conference at Picture Rocks Camp, Monticello, Iowa. Panel discussions at the conference centered around the "Ideal College" with separate discussions of "The Ideal Curriculum," "The Ideal Social Structure" (including intellectual and cultural opportunities) and "The Ideals of Personal Freedom and Responsibility." The conference participants enjoyed the well-appointed cabins and scenic attractions of the camp which belongs to the North Iowa Conference of the Methodist Church. The purpose of the conference, according to Ernest Norris, student body president, was to strive for "frankness and sincerity between students and faculty administration," and to make the meetings "a successful venture in resourceful thinking and group planning." The Dressels resided in the Antioch area for several years, and William is a graduate of Antioch High School.

accustomed to move audiences to act. Time is not the friend of dystrophy patients, either, who are dying while science searches for an answer.

So Dick Blondi returned to his favorite medium, the air-planes of Radio Station WLS. Now, he is asking his multitudes of teen-aged followers to send their contributions into the Muscular Dystrophy office.

As Director of Teen-Age Activities for the Greater Chicago Area, Dick Blondi is once again demonstrating his basic belief that teen-agers are interested in being of service to the welfare of the community.

Nobody can solve a problem like those who live a thousand miles away from it. —The New Era, Deep River, Conn.

MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY

DICK BLONDI, America's most dynamic disc jockey and Director of Teen-Age Activities for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Greater Chicago, assures Michael Lauer, 9, of 6238 Talman Avenue, the 1962 poster boy for the Greater Chicago chapter, that the current $250,000 fund drive to battle this baffling disease which cripples children will be a huge success. Mike, son of Ervin Lauer of the Fire Prevention Bureau is one of four brothers who are victims of muscular dystrophy. Nationally, there are tens of thousands of victims of the disease, two-thirds of these are children between the ages of 3 and 13. These children are condemned to death before reaching maturity unless some cure for muscular dystrophy is found.

Teen-Agers Asked To Help Snuff Out Muscular Dystrophy

Dick Blondi, the famed ambassador of goodwill from Teenville, had to switch tactics in his current fund-raising campaign for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Chicago, 203 North Wabash Avenue.

Dynamic Dick offered to tour high school campuses in the Chicago area and tell his teens the muscular dystrophy story—how this mysterious crippling snuffs out the lives of its youthful victims before they reach maturity. Then, he planned to pass the hat.

But officialdom in various municipalities require permits. Permits take time. Time is not the friend of the energetic disc jockey who is

Sequoits Lose In Last Two Minutes Of Play Saturday

Saturday's football game between Wauconda and the Antioch Sequoits turned out to be a 2-minute and 38-second game. That was the time left when Wauconda scored on a 33-yard pass play, Miller to Winterroth, and handed Antioch the fourth consecutive defeat of the season.

Playing at Wauconda, the Bulldogs registered their first homecoming victory since 1956. Wauconda scored early in the opening stanza when Don Miller passed to Dick Winterroth good for 19 yards and a touchdown.

Rich Fitch set up Antioch's first score when he returned the second-half kickoff 22 yards to the Antioch 42-yard line. The Antioch drive took 14 plays and covered 88 yards for their first score.

The touchdown came on a five-yard pass play, Brownlee to Geist. Gregg Gates kicked the extra point after touchdown and the score was 7-0 Antioch leading.

Late in the fourth quarter with 2 minutes and 38 seconds remaining, Winterroth slipped past the Antioch defenders and took a 20-yard pass from Miller to go all the way for the winning touchdown. Christ plunged over for the point after.

Fighting back, Jim Brownlee passed to Geist for 15 yards with just 2 minutes remaining. Two successive five-passes and a 3-yard gain by Rich Fitch on a draw play took the ball to Wauconda's 27-yard line where time ran out.

Statistically, Antioch picked up 9 first downs to Wauconda's 6. The Sequoits eleven gained 173 yards to the Bulldogs' 258. Antioch suffered injuries to two key players when Rich Fitch went out with a bruised knee and end Tom Furlan suffered a bruised shoulder.

The Sequoits will move home this week for their homecoming contest against Elmhurst. The game time is scheduled for 12:30 Sat.

The Elmhurst Bears will be out to avenge their 37-0 loss last week to Round Lake while the Sequoits are still trying to break their winless streak.

Playing on their home field before a homecoming crowd should give the Sequoits a slight edge.

DU Shoot A Success

Despite weepy skies and gloowering clouds, Lake County Chapter of Ducks Unlimited turkey shoot came off with a bang Sunday on the grounds of McHenry Sportsmen's Club. The warm enthusiasm of the gunners more than made up for the lack of sunshine as they carried off 76 plump young turkeys as their prize of the meet.

Youngest and happiest winner of the day was 10-year-old Scott Hawkins of Antioch who "sadly" beat out his father, George, for the bird. It looks like George will be getting the "bird" from here on in.

Ben Shostak, Lake County Chapter chairman, in releasing the figures of the shoot said 380 nimrods competed for turkeys while another 65 were content to fire at clay targets for practice. He was congratulated by visiting dignitaries of DU for the successful handling of the affair, as were the officers and members of Northern Illinois Conservation who assisted. All of the net proceeds of the shoot will be used by DU in preserving duck breeding grounds to build up the flocks of waterfowl on the North American continent.

Turkey winners from this area were: William Brook, F. Dittmer, Sr., F. Dittmer, Jr., C. Kempf, J. Carlson, 533 Windsor Dr., Scott Hawkins, Wm. J. Wilton, Pete Matteoni, R. Helgesen, Grass Lake Rd., C. B. Olson, Rt. 5, and R. Gresens.

smooths bumps better than a bulldozer

If all roads were superhighways, Chevrolet's remarkably smooth and silent ride might be just another luxury. But as most town and country roads will demonstrate, this is one Chevrolet advantage that's mighty easy to get excited about. (The way those four deep-coil springs put the kibosh on bumps, you'd almost think Chevrolet was working for the highway commission.) The '63 Bel Airs, Biscaynes and Impalas are equally easy going on upkeep. Brakes are self-adjusting. New Delcotron generator s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-s battery life. Even the rocket panels on the Body by Fisher are self-washing and ventilating to cut down on rust. Your dealer's waiting to tell you lots more.

[illegible]This image shows a vertical strip of a document page. The left edge features a lighter, possibly metallic or reflective, strip. The main body of the page is dark and heavily textured, appearing to be a high-contrast scan of a physical document. The texture is grainy and uneven, with some lighter areas interspersed within the dark background. The overall appearance is that of a narrow, vertical section of a larger page.
